Oxymoron (Noun) A phrase that contradicts itself, used in writing for effect. E.G To lead the people, walk behind them.

On Wednesday 23 June it is national 'thank a teacher' day. We are asking students, parents and fellow staff to say a little thank you to those teachers that have made a positive difference. So, if a particular teacher has gone above and beyond for your child or has been particularly supportive of the family – then please take a minute to express your gratitude using the link below and then we can spread the joy.
