SECONDARY NEWSLETTER

As the final half term before Christmas begins, we are so pleased to be able to start it off with a fantastic new selection of books which cover a wide range of interests and reading accessibility. We've also included several QR codes which you can scan with your phone to watch videos of authors talking about their books or reading extracts from them. We hope that this will help inspire your child as they hear more about the books.

Whether your child is interested in reading about extinct creatures, a character who grew up in the social media spotlight, or perhaps thrillers for young adults, there is something that we hope will capture the eye of everyone. This is obviously not an exhaustive list – there are so many books they could explore. Whatever they are curious about, or take interest in, consider looking at books around the topic, or encouraging them to research into the area further through non-fiction texts such as online articles.

Please note that unless otherwise stated, the texts are suitable for Year 7 and up, but please do research the books before selecting them to ensure that they are appropriate for your child as these are just a publisher's guide.

Whether you're looking for books or audiobooks to get out of the library now, or for Christmas presents, we hope you and your child enjoy reading this half term and that you have a wonderful end to this year.

Hachette publishers have kindly offered parents 20% off the books they publish which have been featured on this newsletter. The Hachette logo is next to each of the books this applies to.

To place your order directly with Hachette and pay via card, please ring their customer services team on +44 (0)1235 759555 or email hukdcustomerservices@hachette.co.uk including your name, delivery address and contact telephone number, along with the ISBNs that you would like to order. Please do not include card details on email. Please quote the promotional code PIXLNOVEMBERNEWSLETTER over the phone for 20% off your order.

SHORTER READS

The books below are all shorter-length texts, which could be engaging for anyone, but they are published in a dyslexia-friendly font to help make them accessible to all. If your child doesn't have dyslexia, they can still read these wonderful books!

Dark Peak

MARCUS SEDGWICK

During a long, hot summer, two children, Stephanie and Stephen, go missing while on a school trip to Lud's Church, a deep chasm in the heart of the Peak District. Porter, and his friend Sam, are sent to fetch for help. When they return, they are surprised to find that although Stephanie has been found, no one is even looking for Stephen anymore. Why can no one remember what's happened to him? What happened in Lud's Church? And why does Porter get the feeling that supernatural forces from deep in the past are at play?

Keeper

ALAN GIBBONS

New boy Shane Logan has a temper, but he's also a talented goalie. When Peter and his friends invite Shane to join their football team, he delivers a star performance in the first match. But Shane's not the only one who makes an impression. Hanging over him like a shadow is his dad, Mick, who yells orders and insults from the side lines. What is Mick's problem? Any why does Shane seem afraid of him? The more Peter gets to know Shane, the more he worries that something is wrong...

The Royal Rebel

BALI RAI

Born in 1876, Princess Sophia Duleep Singh was the daughter of the last Sikh ruler of the Punjab, and goddaughter of Queen Victoria. After her father lost control of his empire and was exiled to England, Sophia had a privileged but troubled upbringing that left her unsure about where she belonged – in India or England. Sensitive to injustice, she became a suffragette and fought hard to win the vote for women. This is the extraordinary story of her life.

The Disconnect

KEREN DAVID (13+)

Could you last six whole weeks without your phone? Six weeks without sharing photos, without group messages, without being kept in the social media loop? An eccentric entrepreneur has challenged Esther's year group to do just that, and the winners will walk away with £1,000. For Esther, whose dad and sister live thousands of miles away in New York, the prize might be her only chance to afford flights for a visit... But can she really stay disconnected long enough to win?

Steve Jobs: A Biography

WALTER ISAACSON

£12.99 9780349140438

The death of Steve Jobs shocked the world. In this book, Walter Isaacson presents the only biography written with the collaboration of Jobs, the definitive portrait of one of the undisputed icons of our time: the chronicle of the hectic life and abrasive personality of the genius whose creativity, energy and desire for perfectionism revolutionised six industries. Aware that the best way to create value in the 21st century is to connect creativity with technology, Jobs founded a company in which impressive leaps of the imagination go hand in hand with astonishing achievements in technology. This biography is full of teachings about innovation, character, leadership and values.
