Author of The Week

SOPHIE KIRTLEY

Winner of the 2016 Mother's Milk Writing Prize for poetry and shortlisted for Joan Aiken's Future Classics Prize.

Before becoming a published author, Sophie worked in a theatre, a bookshop, a tiny pub and was a Secondary English teacher. She began storytelling through poetry and her Mary Anning poem was chosen for National Poetry Day one year.

Her two children's novels are famous for their timeslip adventure storylines: The Stone Age meets modern day! Each book contains a hurdle to overcome, new friendships to be made and an adventure to be had.

Sophie Kirtley says:

If you like Nizrana Farook or Tamzin Merchant, you'll love these books!

Reading can take you EVERYWHERE - to far off lands, on magical adventures and even back in time! So read, read, READ!
