Author of the Week

A. M. DASSU

Winner of the Calderdale Book of the Year 2021.

A.M. Dassu was born in the Midlands and, before becoming a writer, studied economics and worked in Project management; she then decided to follow her dream.

Her books are full of hope, as they explore issues and themes which are relevant to today's world including terrorism and refugees.

A.M. Dassu is also the director of Inclusive Minds which is an organisation which focuses on representation in children's literature.

If you like Piers Torday or Benjamin Dean, you'll love these books!

> It is more important than ever for children to see themselves portrayed in literature, to know that they can also aspire and dream.

A. M. Dassu says:

Word Of The Week

Word of the Week

Imminent adjective

Meaning:

- 1. ready to take place.
- 2. often used of something bad or dangerous seen as menacingly near imminent

Example: these people are facing imminent death.

Related/similar words: forthcoming, impediment, near

Etymology: early 15th century from Old French eminent "prominent" (13c.) or directly from Latin eminentem (nominative eminens) "standing out, projecting, prominent, high," figuratively "distinguished, distinctive,".

Football Trial Event

Outline of the programme

The full-time programme - which will be open to male students aged 16-18 on 31st August 2023 - will provide aspiring players with the opportunity to develop their football skills whilst studying a BTEC Sports qualification. Through this new partnership talented and aspiring players won't have to pick between football and academic development; they

You'll study at Abingdon & Witney College's Abingdon Campus, and train directly with UEFA B qualified coaches at the Oxford United Bangkok Glass Training Centre.

This new study programme includes a sports based vocational qualification, GCSE English and/or maths as required, a supportive tutorial programme, work experience, and enrichment activities.

Focus on being your best!

First and foremost, the Oxford United Advanced Football Programme recognises the importance of your academic development. Through this unique programme you'll also have direct access to the Oxford United Bangkok Glass Training Centre which is part of the £4.9m sports complex near Horspath.

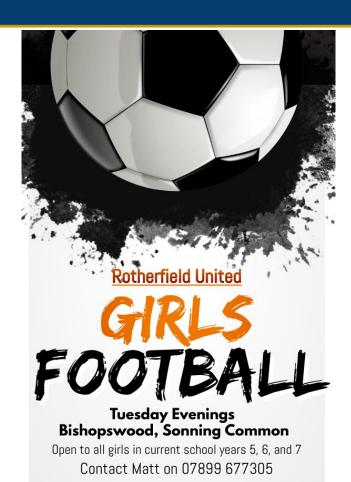

Here you will train and compete in a competitive league and cup tournaments against other teams across the region whilst representing Abingdon & Witney College and Oxford United.

For more information about the course and to apply visit: www.abingdon-witney.ac.uk

Note: Our intention is to only interview students who apply to the course and successfully complete the Football Trial Event.

Interviews will take place at the event on 26th April.
