Dear Parents and Carers

Appointment of Deputy Headteacher

I am delighted to share some exciting news with you. Sarah Gibbs will be joining Maiden Erlegh Chiltern Edge as Deputy Headteacher on secondment from Maiden Erlegh School in Reading, while Mrs Hills is away on maternity leave.

Ms Gibbs (Deputy Headteacher, Maiden Erlegh Reading School in Reading) is an experienced school leader with a proven track record of upholding the very highest standards and helping students achieve excellent outcomes. Her leadership has always placed students at the heart of school life, ensuring they feel supported, challenged and inspired to do their very best.

Alongside her impact on students, Ms Gibbs brings extensive experience in supporting and developing staff. Her expertise will not only strengthen our leadership capacity but also help colleagues to grow and refine their practice, ultimately benefitting every child in our care.

We feel extremely fortunate to be welcoming Ms Gibbs to our school community. I know she will be a wonderful addition to our team, and I am confident that her warmth, expertise, and dedication will have a positive impact across the whole school.

I am sure you will join me in giving Ms Gibbs a very warm Maiden Erlegh Chiltern Edge welcome.

Yours sincerely

Miss E Bliss
Headteacher
